CRISSINGER IS TO SPEAK AT LOCAL BANKERS' DINNER

Comptroller of Currency Will Be Heard at Banquet on April 26.

WILL MEET TODAY

Council of Administration May Name Convention Committee Today.

The acquisition of R. C. Crisnger, Comptroller of the Currency. as guest and one of the principal speakers, is the latest triumph ored by the dinner committee of the District of Columbia Bankers' Association in the matter of their annual banquet to be held at the New Willard Hotel on the evening of April 26.

This banquet, which promised to outdo all others in lavish display of pice estables and brilliant speechmaking, is being tendered in honor of the new administration and by high government officials and department heads will be in attend-While extreme pressure of siness has prohibited President hasiness has prohibited the Harding from giving a definite "yes," information from unquestionable sources would indicate the Chief Executive will honor the as-

Chief Executive will honor the as-sembly with his presence.
... Replies signifying their eagerness to attend have already been re-ceived from Vice President Coolidge, Secretary Mellon, Secretary Davis, Aftorney General Daugherty, Secre-tary Fall, Senator Ball, Col. Kutz, Cupo Rudolph, Capt. Oyster, M. M. Prentice. Thomas B. McAdams, George B. Christian and other dig-mitaries and financiers of note, mitaries and financiers of note, while a steady stream of accept-while a steady stream of accept-ances are still coming in. The dinner committee of the Dis-trict of Columbia Bankers' Asso-ciation consists of the following: Col. Robert N. Harper, chairman; Joshua Evans. jr., W. W. Spaid, Harry V. Haynes, Col. Wade H. Harry V. Haynes, Col. Wade H. Cooper, Maurice D. Rosenburg and Corcoran Thom.

Bankers to Meet.

The Council of Administration of he District of Columbia Bankers' fternoon in Col. Harper's office, at 120 o'clock, at which time it is ikely a convention committee will be appointed to decide upon the he and place for the holding of fir annual convention. Last year, will be remembered, the convention was staged aboard the steamer "Midland," taking in a two days craise down the Potomac and culminating in a gala reception by the bankers of Norfolk. Every effort is being made on the part of the local year's brilliancy.

On April 18 at 8 p. m., there will be held at the New Willard Hotel a regular stated meeting of the local organization, as provided for in the constitution and by laws, for the discussion of all timely topics appertaining to the functions of the District Bankers' Association.

LABOR DECISIONS WITH CALL RATES DEPRESS MARKET

> Country Banks' Attitude on Loans Reflected in Slow Trading.

FUNDS WITHDRAWN

Investment Men Look for Healthier Conditions and Easier Money.

NEW YORK, April 7 .- The calling of call loans by some country banks and a rise in the call money rate to 6% per cent, together with the refusal of the Railroad Labor Board to permit the New York Central to cut wages had a depressing influence on the stock market today. .

Business was almost entirely for the account of professionals, who offered shares at the expense of values and caused declines ranging from one to two points in the most active issues.

in transportation shares following announcement of the refusal by the Railroad Labor Board to permit the New York Central cut in wages. Northern Pacific and Great Northern were especially weak in the last hour, the former losing nearly two points and the latter one.

Call Money Renewed.

Call money renewed at 5 %, but in the last hour advanced to 6 % per cent and closed there. Just as country banks increase their decountry banks increase their deposits here when call money rates when the rate declines.

The decline in the rate to 5½ per cent, this week caused a number of out-of-town institutions to withdraw funds which they were lending on call in New York.

It was these withdrawals that

It was these withdrawals that caused the tightening of demand funds. Prominent investment bank-ers look for easier money in the near future. Some of the aborts in American Sumatra started to show uneasiness regarding their position yesterday. In an attempt to protect themselves they were in the market yesterday morning for calls on the stock. They offered to purchase privileges at prices ranging from six to seven points above the current market quotation but were unable to find any sellers.

Directors of the company meet next Tuesday to take action on the dividend. There has recently been considerable selling of the issue in expectation that the rate will be re-

Harvester Still Weak.

International Harvester developed renewed weakness and lost more than two points owing to announce-ment that it will curtail its opera-tions and shut down some of its plants. Notice to this effect has been served on employees. This action seemed to lend color to the persistent reports that the company proposes cutting its dividend, notwithstanding bankers statements to the contrary.

The most favorable development during the day was a statement by bankers that the affairs of the that all danger of a receivership has been removed.

BANKING CO-OPERATION
